COLLECTION INSPIRATION

I once saw Rick Rubin walking down Abbot Kinney.

I stopped him and said, "I have no idea who I would be today if it wasn't for you. Thank you."

Music is everything to me. Once in a generation musicians inspire me. Nothing moves me more than a song. A lyric. A sound. A rhythm. A performance. For this collection more than others, I sought out iconic styles worn by musicians of generations past and reimagined them. This collection has more character than any GLCO collection before it because of music. You could say I'm proud of this album and I'm confident you'll find many songs you like.
